Official Plast Personalised Stamp and Commemorative Envelope Release

During 2011-2012 the Ukrainian Scouting Organisation Plast is commemorating the centenary of its formation in 1911-1912. The Supreme Plast Council "Holovna Plastova Bulava (HPB)" has released both an official centenary logo (for camp badges) and an official postage stamp design that will be released by many of the international Plast Federal Executives around the world.

The Plast Federal Executive (KPS) in Australia is releasing an Australian commemorative Personalised Stamp and first day of issue envelope (FDC) for the International Centenary Jamboree (UMPZ) to be held in Canberra, ACT, from 26 December 2011 to 3 January 2012.

Who is facilitating this project?

George Fedyk of Bandura Collectibles is facilitating this project on behalf of KPS Australia. George is a lifelong member of Plast and a member of the Chornomorts'ki kurin. He has expertise in releasing these stamps and envelopes being the project manager for the Ukrainian Collectibles Society (UCS) which is currently releasing stamps and covers for the "Ukrainian Heritage in Australia" series. He will be responsible for preparing, producing and distributing these philatelic items.

What is planned to be issued?

- An official Australia Post Personalised Stamp™ with a label depicting the approved HPB centenary design.
- A souvenir commemorative envelope depicting the official centenary logo and which will be cancelled on the first day of release in Canberra, ACT
